Fundraiser for Riley's Children's Hospital

"Shaving Legs for a Cause"

March 3, 2017

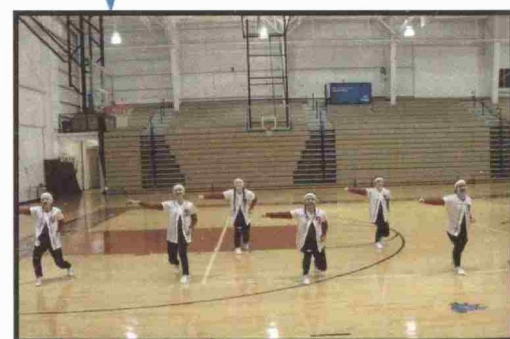

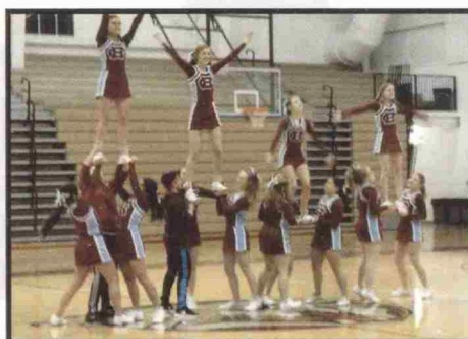

The Student Council room was buzzing early January as the group began their preparations for their annual fund-raiser for Riley's Children's hospital. Twenty groups, lead by student council members, chose a male representative and raced to the halls of Hanover to begin raising funds. The representatives crossed their fingers that their leader would bring in the most funds, because only the top three funders were safe. The other 17 males had to shave their legs in front of the entire student body.
